

Inauguration of the Fricsay - commemorative plaque in the National Theatre of Szeged 24.Okt.2014

The tablet was inaugurated on the former site of his succes at the National Theatre of Szeged to honor Ferenc Fricsay, born a hundred years ago

Foto: Schmidt Andrea (Galeria)

Kerek Attila (holding a rose), organizer of the festivities, in front of the "Ferenc-Fricsay-Concert-Band" of Szeged

In the entrance hall located at the ground floor, one can see on the plaque the portrait medallion, created by the sculptor Toth Sándor. In the Somogyi – Library the Fricsay - exhibiton was opened at that occasion. Subsequently a commemorative concert under the direction of GM Sándór Gyüdi was given. In addition to compositions of Mozart, Bartók and Kodály the Symphonie Orchestra of Szeged played the „Dramatic Overture” composed by Fricsay.

That special evening everyone honered Ferenc Fricsay with a rose

GM Sándor Gyüdi held his official speech before the unveiling of the commemorative plaque in presence of Marta Dobay-Fricsay, daughter of Ferenc Fricsay.

Ferenc Fricsay (1914-1963)
In Memory of the world-famous conductor

He conducted in this building from 1934 to 1944
Installed by the City of Szeged 2014, on the occasion of his 100th birthday

Memorial Exhibition at the National Theatre

With great pleasure the couple Dobay-Fricsay visited the attractive, meaningful exhibition